A MESSAGE FROM SUSIE

Dear Lanakila Multi-Purpose Senior Center (LMPSC) Members and Ohana:

LMPSC received a thank you letter from Hawaii Food Bank President and CEO Gerald Shintaku and Food Drive Chair Sheri Rolf expressing appreciation to our center for contributing towards the 1,573,711 meals that they will be able to provide based on their recent community food drive to help Hawaii’s islanders this coming year. Mahalo to the Center members for their donation of food.

We would like to express our appreciation to Titan Mitchell, his parents, friends, scouts and scout leaders of Boy Scout Troop 777 for building the covered bench and picnic table and chairs in the Center’s front yard in late July and early August. Mahalo to Bert Tapawan for donating primer and paint and Phil Chun, scouts and their parents for painting the exterior walls and window frames of the large kitchen. Their hard work will be enjoyed by our center members for years to come.

Flu shots were made available on August 24, 2017 at the Center provided by Larry Tong from Don Quiote Pharmacy. On September 5, 6, and 7 from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m., flu shots will be available by Nam Nguyen from Walgreen’s Pharmacy at LMPSC. Please bring your ID and health insurance card. Thank you to both companies for offering this service to us.

Mahalo to Puna Frank, Baron Ching, Carole Ka’apu, Alice Sasano, and Mark Yoshida for contributing to the Center garden. Members are welcome to use the herbs and vegetables to enjoy. Using a scissors to cut the leaves and not pulling up the plants would be most appreciated. Please remember to wash thoroughly before eating or cooking. A big mahalo to Ken Takeya for building two garden beds for us and for the squash plants. We appreciate his generous donation.

Thank you to Joan Matsukawa and the members of the Hawaii McIntosh and Apple Society for continuing to teach center members how to use their computers, iPhones and iPads. The next regular classes will be on Saturday, September 9, 2017, from 8:30 to 9:45 a.m. in the LMPSC Library Room. Chris Duque will be doing a special presentation from 9:45 to 10:45 a.m. on computer safety and scams. Please sign-up if you are interested in attending.

Brain exercise classes are well attended each Monday at 10:30 a.m. Thank you to Center Member Joyce Wong for introducing us to Eisho Hayashi from Japan and Junko Ho, who conduct these classes.

The Show and Sell event on August 10 was well attended and we thank everyone for coming. Mahalo to the Okinawa Nenchosha Club for organizing this event and a big mahalo to all the cultural clubs for their onolicious food and to the community and center members for all the wonderful donations they shared with the Center. As a result, we raised over $1,000! We started a Hanafuda class every Thursday at 11:00 a.m. Mahalo to Hanafuda Hawaii Founder Helen Nakano and Center Member Amy Hagihara for helping us get this off the ground. Mahalo to Council Member Carol Fukunaga for giving new packs of Hanafuda cards to kick off this newest class.

There will be a meeting on the School Street Administrative Offices and Housing Development (planned to be built next to LMPSC) on Thursday, October 19, 2017, from 10:30 a.m. to noon, at our Center. Please attend. A detailed rendering of what the Hawaii Public Housing Authority and Retirement Housing Foundation is being presented. Your comments are vital to the process.

On Tuesday, October 31, 2017, we will have a Halloween celebration. Costume contests, singing, a barbecue and pot luck, dessert contest, trick or treat goodie bags, ghost story telling, and other fun activities are being contemplated. We would like volunteers to help our staff decorate the Center and be a part of the planning.

Please reserve Friday, November 3, 2017 for the LMPSC Veteran’s Day Program from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. We will be honoring our 143 center members who are veterans. The 111th Army Combo Band will perform a prelude of songs at 8:30 a.m., followed by a formal program from 9 to 10 a.m., and more musical numbers during lunch from 10 to 11 a.m. Frank Toma will be our Master of Ceremonies and CCH CEO Terry Walsh, Office of Veteran Services Director Ronald Han, and Rear Admiral (retired) Alma Grocki will say a few words to the veterans. We are grateful to Ke’ehi Memorial Organization (KMO) for their generous donation of $2,750 to help us sponsor a delicious lunch for each veteran and their guest. Center members who are not veterans are encouraged to attend the program and may purchase lunch. There will be a sign-up sheet at the front desk this month for this event. Ellen’s Ukelele Group will be performing during the lunch from 10 to 11 a.m.

President and CEO Karl Yoneshige and Credit Union Community Advocate Sylvia Young from HawaiiUSA Federal Credit Union has confirmed that they will sponsor a Thanksgiving Luncheon for the members of our center on Monday, November 20th. The event will be from 9 to 11 a.m. Kahai Street Kitchen will prepare the lunch for us. Please reserve this date on your calendar and enjoy the fellowship during this time of thanksgiving.

Please make sure you have the LMPSC Christmas Party on your schedule for Friday, December 15th at the Japanese Cultural Plaza. More details are forthcoming.

In reviewing the weeks before our cultural celebration of Beiju and Kajimaya, we learned about Medication Management on July 27 from Patrick Uyemoto from the Pharmacy of Times Super Market, and on August 3, Brandi Ching of Kaiser Permanente along with her Brain Gym Consultant went over some simple acupressure points to help with learning, memory and balance. We were reminded again how water hydration is key to maintaining good health.

Our only fundraiser for the year was our Andagi Sale at the August 10 Show & Sell. It was a tremendous success, thanks to the promotion of ticket presales and our hard-working Board and helpers who started on Wednesday afternoon to prepare, and showed up very early on Thursday morning to mix and fry the popular Okinawan doughnuts. Special thanks to Jikoen for the equipment and their expert workers who assisted us.

In Okinawan culture, respect for the aged is celebrated at various ages. Beiju is celebrated on the 8th day of the 8th month for those reaching 88, and Kajimaya on the 9th day of the 9th month for those reaching 97 years. Both of those events were celebrated on Aug. 17 with a special ceremony starting with a parade of taiko drum, sanshin music and clanging of cymbals announcing the parade of celebrants dressed in kimonos carrying toy pinwheels symbolizing returning to child-like ways for the Kajimaya celebrants. The eight Beiju members honored were Yoshiko Arakaki, Lillian Gima, Stella Isara, Elaine Kim, Rose Loui, Yoshiko Nakasone, Hatsuko Nakata and Virginia Vance, and the three Kajimaya honorees were Nancy Ichikawa, Shizue Ishihara and Ruth Onaga. Congratulations to all eleven honorees who received gifts of mochi symbolizing long life. The program continued with recognition of special guests; lighting of candles and “Banzais” led by Frank Toma and Henry Isara. Ippe Nifei Debiru to Toguchi-Nakasone Sensei who again provided the beautiful kimonos to dress all the celebrants, and to her dancers who provided the entertainment. The festive morning ended with everyone enjoying delicious bentos.

August birthdays were celebrated on Aug. 24 with Masako Kawada (92) and Alice Miyasato (90) occupying the seats of honor. God bless all eight birthday celebrants with continued good health. Special birthday entertainment of Karaoke music was provided by Tevita Akina.

JAPANESE CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE
By Clarice Kumura

Keiro no Hi – Japan’s Grandparents’ Day

Keiro no Hi or Respect for the Aged Day is a national holiday in Japan that is celebrated every third Monday of September. It is a thoughtful and reasonable celebration, considering the longevity of the Japanese. It is like the Grandparents Day that is celebrated in Hawaii but far more serious and is not only limited to those who have grandchildren. An elderly person is a treasure for every household and it is thought that their wisdom should be shared with everyone. Respect for the Aged Day is all about respecting and appreciating your elders and that’s really the best way to celebrate.

On August, we all enjoyed the bon odori of the Meiwa Kai Dance group and ending with everyone participating in dancing bon odori style to Tanko Bushi. Also entertaining were the Okinawan dancers from Sensei Misako Yagi’s Yui Buyo class. On August 14, we heard from Val Yamada of Hui Malama Po’o and her experience of recovery from a stroke. It was very emotional and educational since Val spoke about the rehabilitation she went through to get to where she is today. On August 21, we were entertained by the talented karaoke singers from Kyoko Sano’s class, which included two KZOO Champion singers.

Birthday celebrants for the month of September are: Yoshiko Kaneshiro (90+); Kurt Sekiya (90); and David Young (90+). Tanjoubi Omedetou Gozaimasu!

FILIPINO CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE
By Puna Frank

The Filipino Cultural Club celebrated its’ 45th anniversary at the Pacific Beach Hotel on Sat. Aug. 26. The ladies were dressed in glittering gowns while the men showed off their hand sewn barongs. Members and guests crowded the dance floor with Bong’s music. Line dancing, two-stepping, tango-ing, samba-ing, fox trotting, and hip hopping was happening between the traditional Filipino dances. Two hours into the dancing caused hunger pains, which caused dessert to be consumed before lunch! Lunch featured 4 different veggie salads, hot rice, warm buns, fruit salad, BBQ chicken, and soft, delicious roast beef. Hot potato soup was set up on another table. Many diners had seconds. Service was way above average! All of this happened before the crowning of the 2018 Queen Letty Dolor. After the ceremony, dancing resumed. The dance floor was packed.

Much thank you’s to Iris and her elves for the colorful table decorations which lit the room. Mahalo to guest speakers State Senator Will Espero, Prog. Coordinator Susie Chun Oakland, and State Senator Karl Rhoads for their presence. Most importantly, hats off to FCC President Liwayway Asis, VP and outgoing Queen Trini Ramento, event hosts Jose Monterola and Remy Canon, music DJ Bong Acosta, and publicist Elmer Dela Cruz for their hardwork to make the event a success!

HAWAIIAN CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE
By Diana Antonio

Aloha Kakou! Our club is slowly getting out of a slump, and introduce a couple of new faces. Our new member is Kalehua Adams and her hanai niece is Loke Laronel. Loke is too young to join our club. Loke is our inspirational motivator. Loke teaches us Hawaiian words, songs and prayers. Kalehua is quick to confirm the words, or share new words, songs and prayers.

Materials were brought to Sharon Tulba who was in rehab who made up our birthday calendar even through moans and groans. The handles were wrapped with a green ribbon from Frances Dela Cruz. Frances is still sick at home, recovering. She hopes to visit soon! She wrote a special message to the club in the back of the calendar.

On Aug. 22nd, we colored books that Sharon brought it, on her first day back with us! On Sept. 5th, we will be selling pickled onions from 8:30 am – 10:30 am. Please stop by to purchase a bottle or two. The ladies will be singing and playing the ukulele, and John Burrows will dance the hula. A hui hou!

PORTUGUESE CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE
By Puna Frank

Hello out there! Bom dia– September is fast approaching! Good news! Show & Sell was a Success! Thanks to soup seller Jane; Pastele, Spanish Rice, and Bacalau maker Judy & Gregory; and garage table sellers Virginia & Alice. Your hard work and generosity was and always is appreciated.

Not so good news…we weren’t able to lunch out in August, however, maybe HoHo’s or Royal Palace in September. Stand by for more outings & field trips. Leonard’s is still open for grabs.

Don’t forget, voting for club officers is in November- need new officers pronto! Until then…ate ja!

FREE SMOKE ALARMS FOR SENIORS AND THOSE IN NEED

No smoke alarms in your home? Are your smoke alarms over 10 years old? Have you tested your alarms this month? Do you need new batteries in them?

The American Red Cross of Hawaii, Honolulu Fire Department, and other area partners are working together to install free Smoke Alarms in the homes of seniors and those in need in Hawaii.

If you would like to be a part of this free program, please call the Red Cross at 739-8111, leave your name, phone number and address. We will call you back to schedule an appointment to install the smoke alarms.

“On average, 7 people die every day in a home fire in the USA. Working smoke alarms cut the risk of dying in a home fire by 50%.”

The Red Cross Home Fire Preparedness Campaign’s goal is to reduce home fire fatalities by installing smoke alarms, teaching residents how to test them monthly, and helping you create and practice a fire escape plan to get out of your home in 2 minutes or less.
