A MESSAGE FROM SUSIE

Happy 4th of July, everyone!

Eddie Oi from the City’s Department of Customer Services Information Section, did a presentation on Gold Star Real ID, How to Renew a Driver License and State ID, New Ways to Renew a Car Registration, and How to Make an Appointment for Renewing a Driver License and State ID and Other Services. If you know of a group that would benefit from this information, please feel free to call Eddie to set up a presentation at 768-3499.

Thank you for participating in the Going Green service project on Saturday, June 8, 2019. We appreciate everyone bringing their recyclables and helping us keep our Earth healthy and clean. We collected about 30 bags of HI-5 containers, two truckloads of computers, scanners, printers, and televisions, two large bins of documents for shredding, car batteries, and a storage room full of household goods and clothing. Special mahalo to Rene Mansho, Catholic Charities Hawaii, Chinatown Lions Club, Goodwill Hawaii, Hawaiian Memorial Life Plan, Interstate Batteries, Keep Hawaiian Islands Beautiful, Lions International, Menhune Water, MRM, Notre Dame Hawaii, Poi Dogs & Popoki, Roosevelt High School Leo Club – Soares Truck Rental, T&N Computer Recycling Services, Representative Takashi Ohno, Senator Karl Rhoads and volunteers, Phil Chun, Iris Hiramoto, Cookie Irvine, Marty Kaili, Doug Maynes, Alicia Nagasawa, Lenora Springer, Mary Sueda, Jean Sugihara, and Diane Terada for volunteering.

Re-known local artist Naoki Hayashi hosted a Gyotaku Painting Demonstration on June 12, 2019. He shared the history and significance of painting using fresh fish as the basis of the painting. The center members enjoyed his presentation and look forward to having him return to the center this year.

We extend our gratitude to Volunteer Legal Services Hawaii for having a legal services pop-up clinic on Saturday, June 15, 2019. The free legal services provided by many attorneys in the community at this event resulted in over 50 families and individuals being helped. If you missed this opportunity, VLSH’s number is 528-7046.

We were entertained by Faye Murata on May 30 who came with her assistants to lead us in some fun exercises as part of their program. She is one of the instructors at the Moiliili Community Center, and folks who live in that area are privileged to attend and enjoy her classes. Although the music and words were in Japanese, the songs included appropriate costumes for each number, adding some humor. For instance, the Neko (black cat) number had the teachers dressed in black costumes with caps looking like cats; the Sakana (fish) number had them wearing fish head pieces, etc. Solo numbers in between audience participation added to the variety show. Husband Robert emceed the program and added his karaoke talent by singing “My Way”. At the end of the session our mental health and concentration were tested by doing some finger exercises which were challenging but fun.

On June 6 we were entertained by “Mellow Friends”, a karaoke group led by Gary Shimabukuro who sang the opening number. A TV monitor was set up by the stage so we could follow the words of the songs, some of which included beautiful scenes. The songs took us back to our younger days, like “Sentimental Journey”, “La Bamba, “You’ll Never Walk Alone”, “These Foolish Things”, and many more nostalgic numbers. No doubt everyone recalled some happy memories with many of them.

Father’s Day was celebrated on June 13 with entertainment provided by the Urizun Okinawa Minyo Group, formed by Derek “Ichiro” Shiroma Sensei. (Our deepest condolences to the Shiroma family on the untimely passing of Sensei Derek who was one of our faithful supporters.) The program featured our younger generation of Okinawans, namely, Chantel Ikehara, Shelby Oshiro, Travis Oshiro (Sanshin) and Kaeo Shiroma (guitar). It may have been an emotional performance for the group so soon after services were held for their Sensei, especially for son Kaeo as we celebrated Father’s Day. They did a fantastic job under the circumstances. Of special note is that one of the songs was composed by Sensei Derek for Chantel to sing for their trip to Okinawa in 2010 after she became the youngest Karaoke Grand Champion. We also enjoyed several graceful hula numbers by Shelby Oshiro, including her dancing to a special medley of “Nada Sou Sou” and “Ka Nohona pili Kai” beautifully sung by Chantel.

We celebrated birthdays on June 20 honoring the following members: Mona Bernardo, Yoshiko Kumura, Jan Muraoka, Yoneko Nakasone, Mildred Suzuki, Frank Toma, Nishie Tomiyama, and our own Program Coordinator Susie Chun Oakland. God bless each one of you with many more birthdays! An awesome program of Okinawan dance was presented by the Lynne Nakasone Dance Academy. We were honored with the presence of Grandmaster Lynne Yoshiko Nakasone Sensei, the founder of the dance academy. The dancers were: Keiko Arai, Joana Nakandakari Arakaki, Linda Asato, Hope Hironaga, Kristen Inoue, Gail Kohagura, Renee Morioka, Kacie Nakasone, Lisa Nakasone Nakandakari, Zachary Nakasone, Kacie Nakasone, Julia Nakasone Okamura, Keith Oshiro, Annette Tamanaha and Germaine Uehara. Most impressive was how all the dancers were dressed in their authentic traditional kimonos.
O-BON- The Festivals of Souls

O-Bon, a centuries-old Buddhist memorial festival, is a time to pay respects to one’s ancestors. Families travel back to their hometowns for a 3-day reunion with their living relatives – and the spirits of the deceased. To welcome back the spirits, people pray at gravesites and in front of small altars in the family home. Although O-Bon is a solemn occasion, people enjoy spending time with their families. Lanterns are hung, and a tower for musicians is erected in a central location. Many people gather to perform a folk dance called Bon-odori (bon-dance). Everyone is invited to join. You don’t need to be a good dancer to learn the steps. Just watch what the person in front of you is doing and follow them as they dance around in a big circle. So just dust out your kimonos and hapi coats and attend bon dances held at various locations throughout the island.

Happy Bon-odori!

On June 3, we enjoyed the music and hula dancing with Victor’s Kapakahi Group of talented entertainers. Then on June 10, we heard from Leticia Wilson, RN from Mountain Pacific Quality, on how to treat and prevent diabetes. One June 17, we celebrated birthdays and heard from Moana Gray and the talented Folk Sing Along group playing ukulele, guitar and singing. Members had fun singing-along to the tunes of You Are My Sunshine and other oldies.

Tanjoubi Omedetou Gozaimasu! To Members who are 90+ young. They are Gladys Matsuda; Yurie Takai; Lillian Yajima; and Emi (Emiko) Yoshida. May you all have a wonderful birthday celebration.
