Newsletter | December 2019
What a wonderful 50th Anniversary celebration of the Lanakila Multi-Purpose Senior Center on November 1, at the Pagoda Hotel as we began the holiday season. We looked back at the amazing history, the people who were a part of that history and the many ways it was funded through the years. Of particular interest for those of us who attend classes or are part of an ethnic Club to “play, Learn & Serve”, is the fact that Catholic Charities Hawaii has managed and operated the Center for the State as part of its Mission since 1981. Kudos to the Planning Committee with our Program Coordinator Susie Chun Oakland and staff who did an outstanding job in planning the event and putting together the Anniversary Booklet complete with pictures of members and a history of the interesting highlights. Mahalo Nui Loa from those of us who attended the special event!

We played Bingo on Oct. 31 to end the month of October and had only two meetings in November as the UH Nursing Health Fair was held on Thursday, Nov. 7, and the last Thursday of the month, Nov. 28, was our Thanksgiving Holiday. We have so much to be thankful every day and one of our blessings is being able to fellowship at the Center on Thursdays as members of the Okinawa Nenchosha Club, the largest culture club. We are fortunate to have many dedicated volunteers and a president who knows our culture well. That is an added blessing.

On Nov. 14 the Paranku Club of Hawaii entertained us. Several of its members were in their 80’s and 90’s which was quite impressive. The program of familiar Okinawan songs like Nada Sou Sou, Ashibinaa, Mi Fai Yu to name a few, featured these participants in their paranku outfits: Patsy Afuso, Paula Arakaki, Pat Davidson, Hazel Ginoza, Ellen Higa, Lorri Kajikawa, Susan Kanemoto, Alice Masutani, Betsy Miyahira, Renee Morioka, Hideko Nebres, Miki Nishikawa, Florence Ogawa, Helen Shimazu, Gail Tamashiro and Miko Timmelmans. The kachashi ended a very enjoyable morning.

We celebrated birthdays on Nov. 21 and also observed an early Thanksgiving as we were treated to lunch of a nice Subway turkey/ham sandwich with a slice of pumpkin pie and candy bar, thanks to the generous donations of club members. Our five birthday celebrants were: Grace Kimura, Dorene Niibu, Annie Shimabukuro, Yoshiharu Tengan and Doris Takara. God bless each of you with many more birthdays. Special entertainment was presented by Hui O Laulima, an Okinawan club of women who call themselves “Churakagi Angwata”. The program was emceed by Paula Kurashige who explained the variety of dances and solo numbers. Hula dancers were: Thelma Arakawa, Pat Enomoto, Ele Hu, Jojo Richardson, Ginny Takara, Judy Tibayan, Janet Toyama, Diana Miyasato and Sherry Nushida. Okinawan dancers were: Gail Itomitsu, Diane Kawakami, Gerri Maeda, Val Teruya, Joyce Yoshida and Wendy Yoshimoto. A lively hula solo by youthful Lisa Inouye (Sophisticated Hula) and karaoke singer Ruth Kawamoto added to the fantastic program. As with any Okinawan program or event, members participated in the kachashi to end the special morning.

JAPANESE CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE
By Clarice Kumura

A Grateful Year

As 2019 comes to a close, we are very grateful for the officers who serve on the board of our Japanese Cultural Club. Special kudos to our President, Mary Sueda. Her dedication and passion to make JCC successful and a fun place to come to is evident by her presence everyday at 5:30 a.m. at Lanakila. She will greet you with a cheerful smile even after she had done kitchen duties and setting-up chairs getting ready for our Monday morning sessions. Much Mahalo to President Mary Sueda and Officers of JCC. Have a great and safe holiday and we look forward to seeing all of you in 2020.

On November 4th we heard from Dr. Anna Parlin, an Ophthalmologist who can take complete care of your eyes. Some of the adult diseases are cataract; age-related macular degeneration; and diabetic retinopathy. Some of the systems of eye diseases are: blurry or distorted vision; double vision; seeing floaters; being extra sensitive to light; having trouble seeing well at night; and eye pain. Just be aware of any unusual symptoms with your eyes and check with your ophthalmologists who can provide everything you need for a healthy vision. Then on November 19, we had birthday celebration for November celebrants. Also, Kyoko Sano and her karaoke singers sang with gusto. They were so awesome!

Tanjoubi Omedetou Gozaimasu! to Tomie Elsie Higa; Sally Joyce and George Nakamura. May you all have many more healthy years.

CHINESE CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE
By Becky Ho

Winter Days Ahead

This is the final newsletter for the 2019 calendar year. One of the most eventful celebrations was on November 1, when Lanakila Center celebrated its 50th Anniversary at the Pagoda. A special booklet was printed to honor this date and many entertainment was presented; of great interest was a hula presented by Riva Torno. Such a pleasant surprise to see her graceful performance. Thank you Riva for sharing your talent. Thank you to all the clubs and individuals who shared their wonderful talent on stage. It made the celebration a joyous occasion. Thank you also to the staff who organized the tables and the serving lines. No one had to wait very long for their food. Even Susie helped to carry plates for those who needed more help. We appreciated all the decorations and leis made by our volunteers.

The month of December brings many things: sales, shopping, family gatherings, school holidays, and lots of baking. The start of the Winter Solstice starts on December 21st. After that date, the days begin to get longer.

Christians celebrate Advent which begins on Dec. 1st. Preparations are made for the coming of Christmas. The Advent celebration ends on Dec. 24th.

Cyber Monday is scheduled to begin on Dec. 2nd. Online holiday shopping.

Don’t forget that Dec. 7 is Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day. A sad day in history.

Hanukkah is an eight- day Jewish holiday. It begins on Dec. 22 and ends on Dec. 30.

Lanakila Christmas party will be held on Dec. 20th. See your representative for tickets.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO EVERYONE AND HAVE A HAPPY NEW YEAR!
