Activities in Dementia Care: Filling the Day with Meaningful Engagement

Wednesday, March 16, 2022: 10-11:30am

Creating truly meaningful activities for your loved one living with dementia can be an increasingly difficult task over time. As fine-motor skills weaken and language slows, finding ways to connect can be a struggle. Join us to explore how to increase opportunities for engagement with people living with dementia in a more meaningful way. Learn how to design daily routines and activities that are interesting, meaningful, do-able, and valued by the person who is experiencing so many changes due to dementia.

Challenging Situations in Dementia Care: Putting Together the Pieces of the Puzzle

Wednesday, March 30, 2022: 10-11:30am

Join us for this follow-up webinar on Challenging Behaviors: Recognizing Unmet Needs. We will focus on the Six Pieces of the Puzzle, a tool that helps us to look at the person living with dementia with a new perspective. Together we will examine what factors are fixed, and which ones we can impact. We will look closely at the roles and impact of the physical environment, structure of the day, and those who interact with the person living with dementia. Learn how to be more effective and helpful in challenging situations by focusing our energy on the elements we CAN change vs. those we CANNOT.
