

WINTER 2020 ZOOM WORKSHOP SERIES: GERIATRICIAN PERSPECTIVES ON DEMENTIA, CAREGIVING, AND BRAIN HEALTH FOR CAREGIVERS OF PERSONS LIVING WITH MEMORY LOSS

Kamal Masaki, MD is Professor and Chair of the Department of Geriatric Medicine at John A. Burns School of Medicine (JABSOM), U.H. She is board certified in Internal Medicine and Geriatric Medicine. She has been performing aging and dementia research for the past 28 years, and has been an Investigator and Clinical Director for many large longitudinal epidemiologic studies, including the internationally renowned Kuakini Honolulu Heart Program, Kuakini Honolulu-Asia Aging Study of dementia, Kuakini Hawaii Lifespan and Healthspan Studies. She has received numerous teaching and research awards, and was selected by Hawaii physicians to “The Best Doctors in America” 3 times. She is co-author on over 250 publications in scientific journals.

Aida Wen, MD is an Associate Professor, Dept. of Geriatric Medicine, JABSOM at U.H. and is board certified in Geriatrics and Palliative Care. She is the Principal Investigator of the HRSA funded Geriatric Workforce Enhancement Program which strives to enhance geriatric training for all health professionals, and to integrate geriatrics into primary care. She is Medical Director of Manoa Cottage Kaimuki, a nursing facility dedicated to dementia care. Passionate about improving dementia care and nursing home care, Dr. Wen strives to help patients, providers and caregivers make the journey through this difficult diagnosis as gracefully as possible.
