A MESSAGE FROM SUSIE

Aloha Lanakila Senior Center Members and Ohana:

Summer is coming to an end and Fall is arriving. Our fiscal year ended on June 30, 2023, and Lanakila Multi-Purpose Senior Center was able to meet its City contract goals providing 2,983 hours of paraprofessional counseling, 721 sessions of education and training opportunities, 999 sessions of exercise and physical fitness, 174 health education and promotion activities, 1,854 recreation and leisure activities, and 33,620 hours of volunteer opportunities. A big mahalo a nui loa to our LMPSC staff, volunteers, members, and community partners. There are so many fantastic people who shared their talent, time, knowledge, resources, and positive energy. Working together, caring for one another, and having such good hearts made this all possible.

On Thursday, August 10, 2023, Lanakila will have its 3rd Show and Sell of the year. We hope you will come and enjoy the morning with us from 8:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. at the senior center. LMPSC members, family, friends and the general public is welcome to come.

Please remember that early Fall Class Registration will be from Monday, August 28, to Friday, September 1, 2023. Look out for an email from Program Specialist Riva Torno providing more details. The Fall Class Session begins on Monday, September 18, 2023.

There were about 100 members who participated in the 4th of July Celebration on July 3, 2023. Thank you to Amy Bratt, Geronimo Campos, Lorraine Chang, Gary Cheng, Phil Chun, Thomas Duvachelle, Puna Frank, Iris Hiramoto, Lynne Howells, Elizabeth Irvine, Micah Kalama, Diane Kawakami, Clarice Kumura, Pearl Lee, Diane Fujio, Lou Maynes, Alicia Nagasawa, Hawaii State Sheriffs Lt. Michael Oakland, Jeanette Shiohira, Mary Sueda, Myung Sueno, Jean Sugihara, Jean Sugiyama, Lodi Tapawan, Riva Torno, and Rose Yanagawa for all their help with the event.

Mahalo to Hawaii Pacific Health for another great event on Monday, July 10, with over 100 members attending. Program Specialist Riva Torno worked with HPH staff to organize this health education event. Mahalo, Riva!

There are six Cultural Connection Workshops at Waiahole Nursery and Gardens, in partnership with Christine Ohtani-Chang from the University of Hawaii, being enjoyed by 16 senior center members. We thank these organizations for providing this 6-week course on aquapoinics, hydroponics, haku and ti leaf lei making, plant propagation, native Hawaiian plants, and other interesting topics.

Thank you to Amy Bratt, Corinne Chan, Irene Hino, Jim Hino, Lillian Inatsuka, Mary Sueda, Wendy Tachikawa, and Colette Young for representing LMPSC at the Hawaii Pacific University Fall Risk Prevention student training at the end of June. Dr. Qi Zhang appreciated Lanakila seniors help as "patients" for physical therapy students to interact with and hone their skills and knowledge.

On July 8, 2023, LMPSC members Mary Castillo, Dee Enomoto, Faith Inoshita, Lin Ito, Ellen Kishimoto, Annette Platt, Linda Shimamoto, Myunghee Sueno, Wendy Tachikawa, Michael Tokumura, Violet Tokumura, Diane Yoshida, and Colette Young volunteered their time doing a beautification project, weeding and planting vegetables in the raised garden near the big kitchen. They planted choy sum, sweet basil, Hawaiian chili pepper, yomogi (chrysanthemum looking), arugula, chives, big tomatoes, a pomegranate plant, mint, and tulsi (red leaves). Thank you so much!

On August 12th from 8:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m., the Rotary Clubs, LMPSC members, and others will help paint the raised gardens, fill the garden beds with soil, plant vegetables, and install automatic sprinkler systems under the guidance of Jessie from Mountain View Farms. We truly appreciate the time Rotary Club president Naomi Masuno put into writing the grant to benefit LMPSC, Jonathan Okabe and the Aloha Community Shed for building the wooden raised gardens, and Rotary Club and Lanakila members for preparing the raised gardens for growing fresh vegetables for all to enjoy!

Two small tool storage sheds, 3 storage garden benches, gardening tools, a decorative plant shelf, and a custodial supplies shelf was purchased from City Mill to begin doing a facelift in the green house area and supporting LMPSC's custodian Lodi Tapawan's work and that of garden volunteers. Funds are being used from the Charity Walk grant for enrichment programs of our senior center.

Jacob Callangan, a Catholic Charities Hawaii intern, has been coming to LMPSC every Wednesday and Friday from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. to provide an iPhone Help Desk services. The seniors love having him help them.

Lianne Fujimoto from the University of Hawaii held and continues to hold a series of Nutrition Classes at LMPSC from July 7 to August 25, 2023, from 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. benefitting over 20 seriors

Besides supplies and equipment for garden activities, we hope to use the Charity Walk Grant funding of $10,000 for musical instruments, various craft classes, and other programs of interest to the members of LMPSC.

On Wednesday, July 19, 2023, from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m., LMPSC hosted a Rent and Utility Assistance Program event, co-sponsored by the City and County of Honolulu and Catholic Charities Hawaii. Brandon Mitsuda from Council Member Dos Santos Tam's office and Danette Hiura from CCH assisted with coordinating this opportunity for our members and others in our community.

The Kiwanis Club sponsored Kupuna Spelling Bees statewide. The Oahu Spelling Bee and Finale' was held on the 3rd and 4th Saturdays of July at LMPSC. Seniors from around the State competed and did a great job! Congratulations to all.

Ashley Ong from Civil Beat and her colleagues coordinated a newsroom pop-up at LMPSC on Tuesday, July 25, 2023, from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. and asked seniors what they felt the top issues of importance in Hawaii. We thank her for this opportunity.

LMPSC members went on two Honolulu Transit rides; Kamaka Ukelele Factory; Lokoea Farms to learn about a diverse number of fruit trees; the Waimanalo Country Farm to see beautiful sunflowers; Wahiawa Botanical Gardens, and to Waikalua Loko I'a, which is being restored by volunteers and staff of Pacific American Foundation. Members will also go to Maka'alamihi Gardens in Kaneohe; Dole Plantation to play in the maze, on a train, and enjoy pineapple treats; experience beautiful plumeria trees at the Little Plumeria Farm in Haleiwa, and explore the new American Savings Bank Headquarters in Aala. Mahalo to all the senior center members who made these suggestions and participated as well as the great staff at these various venues.

Wanda Atkins shared with LMPSC members the opportunity to have up to $1,000 matched by Hawaiian Community Assets if members saved $1,000 in 3-months. There are a number of members who are taking advantage of this opportunity.

LMPSC Member Debbie Motokane held a series of Basic Ukelele Workshops in June and July, which has now turned into a regular class every Saturday. LMPSC Member Donald Hirai is hosting Guitar Workshops once a week in the month of July. He will gauge interest and determine if he would be willing to teach guitar class after this series of workshops end.

Dinner Together! was created to provide social opportunities for LMPSC members using dinner drive-throughs and over Zoom during the pandemic. Members continue to enjoy this event, so the next Dinner Together! will be on Friday, August 4, 2023. Sugoi bentos were ordered and available for pick up at Lanakila at 3:30 p.m.

Thank you to Peter Reyes from Catholic Charities Hawaii and Derrick Ariyoshi, Director of the City's Elderly Affairs Division, for meeting with LMPSC members this past month. The information provided helped seniors understand the process of being approved for transportation services by the City.

Finally, on August 2, 2023, at 10 a.m., Fusao Nishibun from the City will be talking about the Real Property Tax Credit for Homeowners with an annual household income of $80,000 annually or less. There are application forms on the reception table as well.

We hope you are able to enjoy the sunshine and fellowship of others. See you soon!

Me ke aloha pumehana (with warmest love), Susie Chun Oakland Program Director

OKINAWA NENCHOSHA CLUB UPDATE By Diana Kawaguchi

HACHIGUWACHI, ACHISAN YAA TAI (August, Hot Weather)

August in Okinawa is a festive time with exciting events dedicated to local traditions, dancing and stargazing. It is also one of the hottest month of the year, with strong sun and high humidity. Okinawa is more humid than Oahu, with less wind.

JULY EVENTS:

July 6th: We were fortunate to have Norman Kaneshiro, from Nomura Ryu Ongaku Kyo Kai Hawaii Shibu, play the Sanshin for our bon dance practice. The members participated in learning the various bon dances, with President, Jane Higa. Dancing to live music, made it feel authentic. Everyone enjoyed themselves, and this was also a form of fun exercise! We ended dancing "Kachashi" with everyone participating, even sitting down!

July13th: We had a wonderful surprise from Brandi Ching, Medicare Sale Specialist from Kaiser Permanente, who brought a sheet cake to celebrate all the members' birthday!

We were entertained by the Paranku Club of Hawaii, with Jane Tateyama giving us some interesting background on the Paranku Club. In Okinawa, Paranku was only done by the men at a certain age. Some of the ladies really wanted to learn Paranku, so they went to visit the sensei from Okinawa, thus in 1976, the Paranku Club of Hawaii was formed. Members range from age 70's-80's. This was a lively group of "young at heart" women who entertained us with their various paranku dances, hula, and Okinawa bon dances. They invited the members to participate, which was fun. The Paranku members performed "Mifaiyu" as their final dance, choreographed by Shizu Shiroma. They wanted to show their gratitude to us for inviting them, and being a wonderful audience. After this performance, we all danced "Kachashi", to signify the end of a happy celebration.

July 20th: The Ryukyu Koku Matsuri Daiko Hawaii, under the direction of Melissa Ching, "wowed" us with their very lively and upbeat performances. The group ranged from 7 years old and up, were very enthusiastic and full of energy. In addition to playing the daiko drums, they performed some lively, fun bon dances too. If any of you are wondering if I made a grammatical error in writing Daiko, instead of Taiko. The difference is Daiko is a high energy performance art that combines music, dance, martial arts, athletics, and culture. This high energy group ended their lively performance with a bright yellow shishimai dancing to "Kachashi". The members were surprised and thrilled. Some went to put money into the mouth of the Shishimai for good luck. This is also considered a donation to the Daiko club.

"Umaribi-kariyushi yaibii-n" (Happy Birthday) to: Kay Fukuhara, Marilyn Isekawa, Diane Kawakami, Lillian Minami, Rumiko Nagamine, Cynthia Oshiro, Nobuko Oshiro, Emmie Otake, Sharon Shiraki, Richard Tada, Edith Tomei, and Sunny Tominaga

Keeping Cool

Summertime gets very hot and humid so people have many different ways to stay cool. Here are some examples of keeping your cool. How about slurping on Kakigori (Shaved Ice). It is always a summertime treat with its tasty flavors. What about sitting under a shady tree and reading a good book. Or, how about wearing cotton clothing on a hot day. It is breathable and light and is an excellent material for summer wear. Most importantly stay hydrated. When you lose water, you limit your body's ability to cool itself. So drink plenty of fluids.

July Activities – On July 3, AARP representative, Rhoda Banashan, started her presentation with the chicken dance exercise. It was so much fun to find out how coordinated we are - or not. She also gave us tips on eating healthy while eating out. Some of the tips were: order fresh fruit; skip wine and desserts; order water instead of sweetened drinks, have snacks containing fiber and protein (nuts) before you go out to eat. Of course, you should enjoy your meal, but be mindful of what you're eating. On July 17, we were entertained by Zendaiko/Naleo Nahenahe O Na Kupuna. It was very exciting to watch a variety of Japanese dance with implements, hula performances, and singing. For the finale, members participated in bon odori with the performers.

Tanjoubi Omedetou Gozaimasu to: Eileen Clark; Lillian Inatsuka; Marilyn Isekawa; Theodore Isekawa; Diane Kawakami; Kazuko Kikkawa; Emmie Otake; Margaret Park; Richard Tada; and Edith Tomei. May you all have many more birthdays!

FILIPINO CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE By Wilma Ibay

Hello August. Summer is almost gone. Thanks God hope the air will be cooler soon.

Well last July 1, 2023 WEI-LING a very nice and generous lady donated a motorized scooter and at this time BONG ACOSTA got it since he had been waiting for this one in the longest time. Thank you so much.

Planning to celebrate July birthdays on July 29, 2023 since the Center was closed on July 22, 2023 for an unforeseen reason.

FILIPINO CULTURAL CLUB will not participate in the SHOW and SELL on August 10, 2023 but each member will just donate for the club's fund.

I missed every one since I was gone from July 6 to July 16, 2023 to fulfill one thing in my "bucket list": 7 day ALASKAN CRUISE. It was a dream come true and I am still feeling the movement of the ocean. Well back to reality thanks GOD, I survived.

GOD BLESS US ALL.

CHINESE CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE By Dorothy Mau

On July 21, 2023 eleven birthday celebrants along with eight other members enjoyed a dim sum luncheon at Legend Seafood Restaurant at the Cultural Plaza Chinatown. We also ate delicious longevity Chow Mein and Chow Fun.

Thank you Sharon Young for planning the party and June Ng for taking care of our bill ,so we didn't have to wash dishes. Favors and door prizes were donated by Sharon Young. Dorothy and Blossom also donated door prizes and Pentax floral arrangements!

Chinese Cultural Club lost one of its members, 89 year old Klaus Lai who suffered a stroke, Services were held and thank you June Ng for representing our club. May Klaus Rest In Peace!

Please come to our August 4, 2023 meeting and we will learn a Chinese Mandarin love song with Sue Fujitani! Meeting at LMPSC at 9:30 am. See you again or in Chinese Joy Ghin!

HAWAIIAN CULTURAL CLUB UPDATE By Roland Manuel

ALOHA! We are looking forward to Show 'n Sell and eager to visit the Aquarium then having lunch at International Market Place. As we close out summer we foresee a FRUITFUL harvest and a little cooler months ahead.

Heaven Father show us how to be at rest in body, Mind, and spirit as we go through life. Help us to trust enough to do what we can reasonably do, leaving everything else for another day. Help us to open our minds to you whether it means redirecting or cancelling. Grant us a restful soul in the day and a peaceful sleep at night.

Case Management Available at LMPSC

Welcome to the two Case Managers at Lanakila. Returning is Cyan Lau who will be at Lanakila on Mondays. Cyan has been a long time Social Worker with the Catholic Charities Hawaii Case Management Program. She brings with her a wealth of experience! Also helping members at Lanakila will be Lourdes Adame, Case Manager who has a passion on helping people too. She will be at Lanakila on Wednesdays.
